THANK YOU FOR ANSWERING THE CALL

"Every day, the men and women of our police department stand in harm's way to protect and serve the citizens of our community. They deserve our gratitude and support. They do an exceptional job; they are even internationally recognized for doing so. With additional resources – equipment, technology, training and community outreach – they could do much more. It is the role of the Foundation to provide the extra measure of support that will enable our police officers to serve us even better."

– Joe Frank, President of the Newport News Police Foundation
